

REPORTERS GET OUT OF JAIL

FROM DURANCE VILLE.
"Examiner" Cash Back of Personal Bond.
Preliminary Hearings Set for April Second.
Prosecutor Says Money Cannot Settle Matters.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN DIEGO, March 20.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—After allowing his reporters, Board, Health and without to remain in jail over night, Hearst's Los Angeles Examiner, through one J. L. Eichols, representing himself to be a "personal representative" of Hearst, arrived on the scene this morning and before noon had secured with Hearst cash in fulling bail for $5000 for the appearance of the men at the preliminary hearing April 2, $1500 each for Hearst and Board, and $5000 for Talbot.

Two surety bonds were turned down by the District Attorney, who held they were not good in a criminal case and it was finally arranged that a personal bond given by C. W. Oestling, local agent of the Surety Company, and J. M. Dodge, be given. It is generally conceded that Examiner cash is behind the sureties.

The alleged burglars were released before noon, although remaining in the city throughout the afternoon. Eichols was one of three Hearst men in town who tried hard to "get" matters. As the personal representative of Hearst, Eichols expressed his disapproval of the act of any newspaper reporter who would commit burglary to secure pictures or anything else and he said he was sure that the Examiner would not for an instant countenance such a thing. His talk had little weight with the attorneys.

Evidence concerning the steal is being collected by the District Attorney and police, one of the burglars from the pitch today being the chauffeur, who is said to have driven the burglars from the pitch today to the special train which was carrying them and their plunder to Los Angeles.

The trio of reporters declared they enjoyed a good night's sleep in the jail, but their looks belie them. It is reported that J. E. Wadman is no longer connected with the defense. Wadman was indicted on a charge of burglary to secure pictures or anything else and he said he was sure that the Examiner would not for an instant countenance such a thing. His talk had little weight with the attorneys.

Attorneys Smith and Utley, the latter being a deputy district attorney, say that money will not settle matters but that the men must go the route.

RUM SELLERS ALARMED.
WILL CLEAN OUT DIVES.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PORTLAND, March 20.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—In order to combat the wave of prohibition in Oregon, the wholesale liquor dealers of the State announced today that they would take steps to weed out the bad saloons and place the business on a footing that would call forth least opposition. An official statement from the Oregon State Brewers' Association lines up the liquor men with the reformers.

The brewers declare they will no longer tolerate dives and they will allow the sale of liquor to minors or drunken persons. To enforce these rules they will refuse to sell liquor to saloons under the hands of operators who refuse to cooperate with the authorities. They will also refuse to sell to "blind pigs" in prohibition districts, and will agree to work against the location of saloons in such resident precincts of Portland as are now without saloons. In short, they intend to wipe out the bad ones by putting the business on a clean basis.

CRITICAL.
CURTIS GUILD IS NEAR DEATH.
GOVERNOR OF MASSACHUSETTS IN CRITICAL CONDITION.
Police Close Street to Prevent Disturbance to Patient Who is Suffering With Rheumatism and Other Diseases—The Chances Are Against Recovery.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
BOSTON, March 20.—The condition of Gov. Curtis Guild remained extremely critical tonight, though there has been no actual change since last evening. Dr. Frederick B. Winslow stated that the Governor's condition remains unchanged, and that he is holding his own well.

A feeling of gloom pervaded the State House all day, and it was evident that the officials who have visited Gov. Guild's residence shared in the general depression.

It was freely admitted that Gov. Guild's condition had reached a stage when it was a question of life or death, with the chances apparently against his recovery.

Numerous attempts to gain definite information from the physicians of the exact nature of the disease proved unavailing today. From outside sources, however, it was said the Governor had inflammatory rheumatism and was suffering from uremia and epistaxis.

This afternoon the police closed to traffic that part of Marlborough street on which the Guild residence is located, so that the noise of teams would not reach the Governor's chamber.

Prayers for the recovery of the Chief Executive were offered by the chaplains of the Senate and House and in several of the churches today.

TO FEED REINDEER GRAIN.
Government Experiments With Herds in Alaska to Increase Value as Beasts of Burden.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
TACOMA, March 20.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—W. T. Lopp, superintendent of schools in Northern Alaska and of the government reindeer herds, who came out on the Northwestern, says there are now 14,000 reindeer in his territory.

The herds began with 1200 animals taken to Alaska by the government from 1892 to 1902. The herds along the coast are thriving but in the interior where the snows are deep and the reindeer moos are not easily found, the animals are not doing as well.

The government possesses about 2000 deer, the missions own about 2000, and Laplanders own about the same number. The Eskimos own the remaining 14,000. It is the practice of the government schools to give deer to the Eskimos when they have been taught how to care for them.

Superintendent Lopp says that the value of the reindeer in Alaska as beasts of burden has been over-estimated since the government is now experimenting to ascertain if the deer can thrive on grain instead of solely on moss. If so, their value as beasts of burden will be greatly increased.

Reindeer Mary, or Sirok Mary as she is sometimes known, has a herd of nearly 400 deer near St. Michael, and constitutes the largest fortune owned by any Eskimo woman. She and her family live in a small hut of driftwood and walrus ivory. They have a reindeer sled and a reindeer harness. They are a happy and contented family.

NOVEL TARIFF COMMISSION.

Senator La Follette Introduces Measure.

President and Members Could Suspend Schedule.

Bill Provides for Experts in Various Lines.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, March 22.—If a bill for the creation of a tariff commission, which was introduced today by Senator La Follette, should become a law it would be competent for the commission and the President acting together to suspend any tariff schedule and put on the free list any article upon which there was such a combination as would control production or prices of wages either in the United States or in any foreign market.

The bill provides for the appointment of a committee of nine members: one from each judicial circuit of the United States, and no one of which shall be a member of Congress. Not more than five are to be members of any one political party. One is to be skilled in manufacturing, another in agriculture, another in imports, another a representative of labor, the next a lawyer, and the last a tariff expert, the next an expert in tariff reciprocity, one in knowledge of production and one in knowledge of foreign markets, and the President is to name the members.

The members are to receive a salary of $10,000 each and after the first eleven years of the existence of the commission, the members are to be appointed for five years. The bill also provides that a new member should be appointed every year.

ANOTHER RAP AT PRESIDENT.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
WASHINGTON, March 22.—More criticism of President Roosevelt was indulged in the House today when he was roundly denounced by Mr. Hardwick of Georgia for failing to send Congress all information regarding communications which have come into his possession.

The President, however, found a ready and vigorous defender in Mr. Mann of Illinois, who stated that the President had acted with the utmost good faith in sending Congress all the information that had come to him.

The discussion across over a resolution by Mr. Hardwick to require the President to supply the House with all data for obtained by the Bureau of Communications. The resolution was tabled at 11.

The re-exports amounted to $22,153,026, a decrease of $15,677,427.

To Preserve Biddy Barries.
WASHINGTON, March 22.—Cover a fresh egg with a thin coating of lard and it will keep perfectly good for an indefinite period, according to a report of a new method of preserving eggs made to the State Department by Consul Murphy at Bordeaux. The discovery is of Italian origin.

Consider Employers' Liability Bill.
WASHINGTON, March 22.—Amendment of the Employers' Liability Bill, so as to meet the objections of the insurance industry, was considered in executive session today by the House Committee on the Judiciary.

MEXICAN PAPER ARMED.

"El Tiempo" Sounds Call to Arms to Withstand Imaginary Coming War With United States.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
CITY OF MEXICO, March 22.—El Tiempo, the organ of the Catholic Church in the republic of Mexico, publishes on its first page today an article which appeared in a New York newspaper recently in which the writer advocates the purchase by the United States of the peninsula of Lower California.

Commenting editorially on the article, the paper urges that Mexico immediately begin to prepare for a war with the United States, as it is charged that the northern republic, failing to obtain the consent of Mexico, is endeavoring to obtain the peninsula for the sale of the peninsula and its harbor, Magdalena, will take it by force of arms.

The editor speculates on the result of the predicted war, saying that Great Britain would take advantage to seize the Philippines should it occur and the Republic of Colombia would undertake to regain Panama.

It is pointed out that England has large interests in the republic of Mexico, and in immediate vicinity of Magdalena Bay, and that the United States is determined to obtain the harbor for strategic reasons before the completion of the Panama canal.

The editorial is not taken seriously by the rest of the press, and is looked upon as the ravings of a madman and a party, and is pronounced anti-American.

DON'T KNOW WHETHER THEY ARE DIVORCED.

MR. AND MRS. DENNIS J. DELANEY SEATED IN COURT DURING DIVORCE TRIAL.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Further consideration of what is regarded as a remarkable verdict returned by a jury in a suit for limited divorce brought by Mrs. Sarah C. Delaney against Dennis J. Delaney has failed to settle the perplexing question whether the couple have been legally separated or whether the ties which bind them in wedlock are as strong as they were before the trial.

Out of the complicated findings of the jury the only definite thing which seems to have been decided is that Mrs. Delaney has been guilty of any misconduct. The matter is further involved by the fact that Delaney is bringing a counter suit against his wife. No definite conclusion regarding the main point at issue—whether the couple should be legally separated or not—has been reached and they now find themselves in the position of not knowing whether they are divorced or not.

When the jury returned its verdict somebody reported to Mrs. Delaney that the decision was against her, whereupon she fainted. But when she revived she was greeted with the information vouchered for by Nicholas Seligson, her attorney, that she had won. This view is at variance with that held by a juror who heard the testimony. When this juror was asked what the verdict was he replied:

"I don't understand what it means. I guess we didn't find against anybody."

The verdict was really one of the rare kind where the sympathy of the jurors did not seem to have been enlisted on either side to a sufficient extent.

STANFORD ROW.

ALUMNI WILL ACT IN UNIVERSITY TROUBLE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 22.—Executive Director of the Stanford University alumni, will probably commence at an early date an investigation of the present controversy between the students and the faculty, a dispute which, for the third time, reached an acute stage today when the Student Affairs Committee accepted the formal apology of the student body for the disorderly parade of a week ago, but refused to reconsider the cases of the twelve men who have been suspended.

Despite the conciliatory act of the undergraduates, the Faculty Committee announced its purpose to press its present investigation, which has its logical outcome in the suspension of nearly 250 students.

Feeling ran high on the college campus this afternoon when the committee's announcement was posted on the bulletin board. Many of the student leaders believed that the professors had so cleverly shown their unwillingness to compromise that they would continue further parleys. The mass meeting last evening had voted to apologize instead of strike, because President Jordan had indicated to the Students' Committee that the only road to conciliation and a reconsideration of the whole affair lay through a formal public apology for the parade of a week ago.

STUDENTS AGGRIEVED.
When the Faculty Committee refused the proffered olive branch this morning, the students naturally felt aggrieved. Even Prof. Max Farrand, who had given conservative advice to the undergraduates on the evening before, admitted he was nonplussed, and he showed plainly he shared the bitter disappointment of the student leaders.

It did not take long this afternoon for the radical element to reopen the agitation for a strike. Prominent men like "Benny" Fenton, captain of the varsity football team, and others, who the faculty intended to remain obedient in the face of a courteous apology, further existence at Stanford would be intolerable.

Fenton urged his friends to unite with him in a movement which would cause practically every man and woman in the university to walk out, leaving the professors to face a deserted quadrangle. He felt, as do many students, that a hostile faculty would mean an embittered student body, and as a result, continual warfare on the campus.

President A. A. Murphy of the Associated Students quickly consulted with his advisors among the undergraduates, and the result was a formal announcement that no mass meeting would be held tonight or tomorrow—in fact, not until student feeling had cooled down enough to insure sober judgment and carefully considered action. Furthermore, he desired to give the faculty committee time to make up its mind. Murphy took a more hopeful view of the situation than the majority of the students. He read in the faculty committee's statement some assurance that leniency would yet be shown the students who have been placed under academic ban.

ALUMNI GET BUSY.
While the situation is thus unsettled and 250 students await what they verily believe will be an edict making wholesale suspensions from the university, a number of prominent undergraduates and alumni, headed by Editor Harold Pitt of the Daily Palo Alto, have quietly taken action leading to an independent investigation on the part of alumni.

The Stanford Club of San Francisco will be asked to call a meeting at an early date, and a proposition will be made to appoint a committee.

PRESIDENT TO URGE ACTION.

Another Message to Congress Decided Upon.

To Offset Agitation Promised by Unionites.

Anti-Trust Law Amendments Are Desired.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—As the result of an extended discussion of the necessity of again directing the attention of Congress to the recommendations of the President, looking to legislation amendatory to the Sherman anti-trust law and of other topics mentioned in his previous messages, a decision has been reached to send another message to Congress within a day or two.

It is said at the White House that the message has not been written, and that it is not probable it will be sent to Congress before the introduction of the Civic Federation bills by Representative Hepburn. This statement is based upon the belief that the moral effect of the introduction of these bills might be seriously impaired if they are preceded by a Presidential message indicating their scope, in advance, thereby reducing them to mere forms.

No explanation whatever can be had for publication from any official source respecting the reasons which have brought about the decision after it had been announced that there was no intention to send a message to Congress at present.

It is believed, however, that the explanation is to be found in the stimulation of public interest in the legislation to be dealt with before the message is sent. The various proposals caused by the very active propaganda instituted by the labor element and the pressure brought to bear by that element directly upon the administration and upon Congress by the labor chiefs, who have been in conference in Washington within the past few days.

The fact that the labor people are asking for legislation that goes far beyond the limit which the President had fixed in his own mind as proper at this time, possibly has suggested to the administration leaders the necessity to direct with more vigor the people to counteract, as far as possible, the appeals which are certain to be made to the mass of organized labor through the various organization publications, when it becomes officially known that the demands of the executive labor organization will be met.

"BAD" MAN SHOT.

His Recovery Would Be Regretted by Residents of an Arizona Community.

GLOBE (Ariz.) March 17.—Some regret is expressed in Globe over the probable recovery of James Walters from wounds inflicted a few days ago by Deputy City Marshal Dick Lowthian. For Walters is a "bad" man, and there has been hope for the extinction of the breed. It now appears that he had started out to exterminate the peace officers of the city, particularly Justice Thomas and Officer Floyd Blevins.

Just why he began with Lowthian is something of a mystery. Blevins had arrested the fellow for a disturbance in the disreputable part of town, and the justice had sentenced him to six months in the County Jail. After his term was out, he worked for awhile in the mines, darkly hinting to his associates his intention to "get even" in a suitable fashion. What he entered the office of the City Marshal, Lowthian was working at a typewriter, with him being his sister, Miss Dalton Lowthian, and Miss Lydia Spinks. When Walters started shooting at the seated officer, both girls pluckily tried to seize him. Miss Lowthian grasped the pistol, thus giving her brother time to seize a revolver, which happened to be near at hand, and to turn to defend himself. Miss Sparks was thrust aside by the would-be murderer with such force that a sleeve of her dress was torn away. Walters was hit but once in the fusillade, his wound being a superficial one through the fleshy part of the right arm. His first shot struck the desperado's pistol, the second Walters' left shoulder, and the third glanced on a rib. The shoulder wound, however, did not prevent him from firing the rifle. He was in good shape for trial at the next term of the District Court. The young women are the heroines of the district.

Yesterday a pair of horses wildly dashed down the main street, dragging a coal wagon. On its seat were a little girl, Norma Higdon, and Anna Wendelborn. The children had climbed upon the wagon as it was being loaded at the railroad depot, and before the horses had taken their hold upon the lurching seat. A number of men tried to stop the runaway, only to be thrown aside. One of them, Ed Hargett, went under the wheels and was badly hurt. Most opportunely on the scene was a cowboy, Will Sparks, who, as the team dashed past, threw the reins over the head of the nearer horse. In the shock that followed, Sparks was flung to the ground, but his well-trained pony died back on his haunches, holding the horses till a score of men had been given time to secure the runaways and to lead the girls from their perilous position.

At Fort Thomas, a few days ago, Joseph Hinton, aged 19, was shot and instantly killed, by his brother-in-law, Virgil R. McEuen, who found him, in the evening, crouched in the family chicken-house and mistook him for a burglar. Hinton was a highly educated and the only solution of the mystery of his action is that he thought to play a joke upon his vigilante brother-in-law. McEuen has been released from custody, a jury considering his action to have been justifiable homicide.

Five weeks past, three Italian miners, had a leg fractured while he was working in the Old Dominion mine. The injury healed well and he was believed recovering. Yet he insisted that he was to die and even named the date. Almost to the hour, he expired, though the surgeons were about to discharge him from the mine hospital. It is believed to have been a clear case of the influence of mind over matter.

Monday, Judge Nave was to have heard arguments on a number of demurrers in the fraud cases against various attaches of the Phelps-Dodge Company. The hearing has been postponed until April 19 and may be continued longer, owing to the necessary absence of the judge and to the fact that the United States Supreme Court is considering an appeal in which have been set up several of the demurrers presented in this court.

A determined effort is to be made in the coming week to make the movement to be under the personal direction of W. W. Havens, organizer for the Anti-Saloon League of New Mexico. The league is a branch of the National Anti-Saloon League, which is a branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, of the Young Women's Temperance Union and of the Temperance League of Honor.

Tonto Basin lately has lost two of its most prominent residents. George F. Peter, for several terms the county representative in the Territorial Council, died in Los Angeles. In Greenback Valley, last week, died D. H. Harer, 84 years old, resident of the locality since 1878. Harer, who had been a resident of the locality since 1878, was a member of the local branch of the Anti-Saloon League, and was a prominent resident of the locality.

Yesterday a man was fatally shot in a riot. The police had been warned of a coming riot, and the crowd was kept under control. It was only with the utmost effort that another riot was prevented.

Unionites Air Grievance in Senate.
WASHINGTON, March 22.—The American Federation of Labor's statement of grievances was laid before the Senate today by Vice-President Fairbanks and was read in full. It was ordered printed as a Senate document, 1900 copies being authorized.

Strike-breakers at Work.
DENVER, March 22.—Of 120 strike-breakers who arrived here from the East yesterday to take the place of Denver and Rio Grande striking shoveler, thirty-seven, the union leaders say, have already deserted. The new recruits, it is stated, will be distributed among the system. The 300 strike-breakers who were reported to have been shipped from Chicago Wednesday night did not arrive here this morning.

Result Is Disastrous to the Labor Market.

Conditions Against Advance of Securities.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, March 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the things that, as much as any other, militates against the advance of security prices is the realization among brokers of the imminence of a labor crisis.

During the past few days a series of events has brought to a focus the demands of labor on one hand and the complaints of employers on the other. Neither side has yet shown tact enough to warrant a belief that compromise will be easy. Employers—only the Republic Iron and Steel Company and the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company—have "abrogated" their contracts with their workmen. The Texas and Pacific has closed down its shops and the Republic Iron and Steel Company is preparing to follow suit. The Pennsylvania Railroad will make wholesale discharges of men April 1.

On the other side of the balance, organized labor is demanding legislation from Congress by which it expects to gain all it is asking for, and the attitude of employers of some of the large corporations in resisting the attempts of their employees to reduce wages in conformity with other conditions, at a time when business is sorely tried, has exasperated employers out of all proportion. Laborers are too prone to forget that without a good market for securities it is physically impossible for railroads to keep down their capital expenditures and to maintain wages as they were in the seven fat years. The old proverb that relates to the giving of an inch and the taking of a mile is still a truism.

INSURANCE NOTES.

If the Metropolitan Insurance Company, the Equitable Life Assurance Society and the Prudential Insurance Company win their fight to prove the unconstitutionality of the Missouri law which prohibits companies paying more than $50,000 a year to any of their directors, the result will be an effort will be made by the agents to have the same companies spend money to test the New York law which limits the compensation of agents.

A temporary wage increase has been granted by the court against Superintendent of Insurance Vandiver of Missouri, directing him to show cause why April 1 why he refused to raise wages to the companies in question.

Charges of mismanagement have been freely made in eastern papers. The company must not, on account of similarity of names, be confused with the Amalgamated Oil Company of this city. There is absolutely no connection between them.

REDLANDS, March 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) More than 2000 spectators saw the ball game here today between the Chicago White Sox second team and the Redlands club and the visitors won by a score of 5 to 1. It was really a good reason for many business houses closing in the afternoon so the employees could attend the game. The Chicago line-up was the same that played in Los Angeles.

The features of the contest were the hard hitting of Anderson of Chicago and the pitching of Gilbert of Redlands. Anderson was at bat five times and made two doubles and a triple, and O'Brien, Purcell and Hart also hit doubles. The Sox found Pitcher Gilbert rather easy, and yet he fanned ten of them. O'Brien found him for a home run.

Maxie Manuel, the Chicago pitcher, secured from New Orleans, held the lead to eight hits, but three of these were doubles and two of them coming in the third inning, helped materially to make the four runs Redlands got in that inning. O'Brien, who was at bat second for the locals and O'Brien was a star at short for Chicago. O'Brien, Hart and Anderson hit the ball hard and often, and Redlands ripped off two doubles in four innings at bat. The game was a fast and snappy one, and was loudly applauded by the big crowd. ENGLISH AND AMERICAN TENNIS CONTESTANTS.

Mrs. Frederick Schmitz and Miss Marie Wagner.

who met recently in New York when American methods prevailed over the English on the board courts of the Seventh Regiment Armory. Miss Wagner, one of the Hamilton Grange Lawn Tennis Club, of this city, won the national indoor title by defeating Mrs. Schmitz, a British expert who has competed in many of the championship events on the other side of the Atlantic. The American girl took the match in decisive style by winning two straight sets with a score of 6-5, 6-2.

School will get together for the second time, this afternoon, on the college diamond. St. Vincent's took the first affair by a small score, winning in the ninth inning after a snappy game. The local boys took upon today's game as the hardest of the season. Both teams have been working overtime in preparation, holding nightly practice with the "varsity." Pomona received its first setback at the hands of the Saints. Both aggregations have splendid batteries. Buckles, the Pomona slasher, has been touted as a corner, with plenty of speed and good curves, while his opponent, Couta, has been winning his games with marked regularity, and with Cindine and Phillips, the backstops, complete two strong combinations.

The flags will be needed on the main streets and in Central Park. All will be incased in 18-inch Japanese ribbed lanterns. None of the old-style, up-and-down Chinese ones will be used.

The aim is to cover with lights thirty-two blocks, Broadway, from First to Ninth streets; on Spring, from Temple to Ninth; on Main, from Temple to Ninth, and on Hill, from Third to Ninth.

A personal appeal is to be made by the committee to every firm in the business section to cooperate in the general decoration.

Abbot Kinney, David Evans and other representatives of the Santa Monica Bay region called on Mayor Harper yesterday. It was possible to get a final assurance that on one day the entire battleship fleet would anchor in the bay. The Mayor could not say anything definite on the subject, that matter resting entirely with Admiral Evans, who no doubt will carry out the wish of the people of the district, having expressed his desire to do so.

San Bernardino has been heard from in a monetary way. Chairman Woolwine of the Financial Committee has received a check for $25 from George M. Cooley of that city, son of C. Cooley of Chicago, the recently forwarded $25. Mr. Cooley thinks that a number of other people in San Bernardino will send money to assist in entertaining the fleet's coming, and in giving them a grand welcome to Southern California waters.

"Long Beach is willing and ready to do her share," writes P. E. Hat, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in announcing that J. H. Munsholland has been appointed to represent the town at the weekly meetings of the Executive Committee here. San Pedro has selected M. J. McDermott as its representative.

The Committee on the Entertainment of Officers is arranging with the Pasadena Board of Trade to serve a moon luncheon on the fourth day of the fleet's visit to 200 officers, who will make the auto tour.

Gen. Frank C. Prescott, chairman of the committee on Neighboring Cities, who went to Venice to talk over matters with the Santa Monica Bay committee, says there is a remarkable unity between the beach towns on the matter of entertainment. Ocean Park and Venice people have buried their differences for this occasion, and are showing the true patriotic spirit.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Residents south of Jefferson street are frantic over the confusion of street names and numbers occasioned by a new "harmonizing ordinance" which requires 250 streets.

Timid ones at the City Hall are terrified by a plague of rats at the municipal building.

The "initial lines" sent communications to the Mayor and to the Associated Charities yesterday stating that in the future they can grant half-price fares to indigents only.

Frank A. Carlson, 19 years old, former assistant cashier of The Los Angeles Examiner, was placed on trial before a jury in Judge Smith's court yesterday, on a charge of embezzling $500, the property of William Randolph Hearst.

George Cann, leader of the Imperial orchestra, was ordered by Judge James to pay $35 monthly, for the support of his crippled son, George.

The lunacy commission yesterday adjourned. Miss Anna Sherwood and J. G. Ashton Inmate remained and returned to custody.

A. E. Dutcher, G. N. Bookhout, and J. M. Decker yesterday filed in the Superior Court individual suits against The Public Service, Power and Water Company, and others, to recover money paid. It is alleged, on misrepresentation.

AT THE CITY HALL.

FRANTIC OVER LOST NAMES.

FIFTY THOROUGHFARES VANISH. OTHERS TRANSFERRED.

Whole Southern Part of the City Thrown into Confusion by "Harmonizing Ordinance"—Policemen Lose Their Heads and Postmen Their Routes—Peppery Protests.

City, county, state and national officials are confounded by a tangle in the street names and numbers in the southern part of the city. Street names and locations, that stood for a quarter of a century, have been wiped out; the policemen have lost his beat, and the postman his route.

Statish street has moved in fourteenth blocks from where it was located a month ago; not more than a dozen streets south of Jefferson street have been able to preserve their identity for their entire length; and about fifty short streets have wholly disappeared. All this happened because of a new ordinance "harmonizing" street names and numbers in the Fifth and Ninth wards.

Following from the number and re-arranging of the complaints that some delay to the clerk's office, the harmonizing process has not extended to the residents of the affected district.

The Council's action recalls forcibly Gen. Grant's criticism of the Democratic party: "You can always depend on it to do the wrong thing at the right time." The legislators wrangled among themselves over street names and numbers, and until matters were collected for the new directory, then it passed an ordinance changing the streets and numbers of 25 thoroughfares south of Jefferson street.

The changes were imposed by the improvement commission in the district, and a quarter of a century ago they would probably have been satisfactory; but during the present generation, a property owner who has lived on Los Angeles street for forty-five years is likely to resent the act of the Council in transferring him over to Wall street.

Postmaster Flint asked that the change be made in the interest of harmony in his department; but his term of office is likely to expire in a few years before the people in the district become reconciled to a change. The confusion occasioned among the residents of the district is a political matter. The electric car conductors have adopted the change in street names, and it is not at all unusual for a resident of the University section to call for Fifty-fifth street, and find himself landed where Fortieth street used to be.

Forty streets in the University section have lost their original picturesque names, and are now referred to as numbered places. It gets on one's nerves to call the University section, which one has lived for a number of years, only to be informed by a portly conductor that there isn't any such street on the University section. It may be, South Main street, Maple avenue or San Pedro street—for the conductors of many cars straddle across the entire southern portion of the city, although it is worst in the University area.

Several hundred registrations have been rendered worthless because the numbers are unintelligible to the County Clerk. The City Clerk is attempting to lessen the confusion by hastening the posting of the new street names. Three thousand copies of the ordinance containing the changes in street names have been printed, and these are sent out by the policemen to deliver at the houses in the district. A combining wall has gone up and the electric light and power companies, and from the telephone companies. They say the cost of repeating their books, sold maps and office records will take away a whole year's profit. A deputy in the engineering department has made a conservative estimate that will aggregate $15,000.

Tax collector Johnson and Assessor Mallard must hear the result of the change this year. It will mean about three months' work for their entire force to get the changes made in their books. They do not understand why the Council should have made the changes just at the time when the new assessment was starting; for them it would have been much better to begin after July 1, giving their men six months in which to get acquainted with their districts before actual work would commence.

The mixed street names in the southern part of the city are the result of the irregular growth and development of that section. Twenty-five years ago Vernon and University were two villages, one southeast and the other southwest of Los Angeles, and they were independent of each other and of their present adopted parent. Tracks were opened, car lines were extended, and finally they found their way toward annexation. The territory lying between was taken in along with them, and a highway avenue was made the southern boundary of the city.

As the years passed and the car lines stretched out farther toward the sea, the suburbs grew toward each other until they joined at Figueroa street. But there was a wide discrepancy in the street names and numbers of the east and west sides of that boulevard. Thirty-fifth street, on the east, joined Forty-second street on the west, and one penetrated the interior the discrepancies became more marked. The postoffice and the fire department found it necessary to detail some of

NEGRO RED'S GUILT HITS LAWLESS HARD.

THE Reds of this city who, on the night of February 23, marched through the downtown streets singing revolutionary songs and waving red handkerchiefs and banners, felt the bitterness of defeat yesterday, when a jury in Justice Frederickson's court returned, in four minutes, a verdict of guilty in the case of G. W. Woodbey, a negro minister, charged with conspiring with the streets without a license. He will be sentenced this morning at 11 o'clock.

Woodbey's conviction is the first severe blow to the cause of socialism. There are thirty more persons awaiting trial. In every case, the evidence will be the same as that offered in the trial of the negro and convictions seem assured. The howl about constitutional rights did not impress the jury of businessmen yesterday, and by one stroke the lawless lost hope, nerve and some of their money.

Woodbey, being "long on talk," made the most longest in the service as path-finders in these districts.

For the first time have been getting ready to harmonize the street names in these sections; but they thought most of their own sense of mind than of the confusion and all attempts at reform proved abortive. Too much credit cannot be given to Counselman William Randolph Hearst, the backbone they have displayed in finally forcing the ordinance through their constituents as no Counselman has ever been blamed before. This is because the change was bound to affect about three-fourths of the street numbers, and even more than that, the Councilman should have left his street alone and changed the others.

The district, it is now named and numbered, provides a series of numbered streets extending east and west from Main street; where there are intersecting streets they are referred to as places, taking the number of the adjoining street.

AT THE CITY HALL.

"EXAMINER" LAD FACING JURY.

RACING AND WOMEN BLAMED FOR HIS FLIGHT.

Former Assistant Cashier Arraigned on Charge of Embezzlement—Business Manager of Newspaper Tells of Alleged Confession. Defendant's Mother Consals Her Face as She Listens.

"Carlson confessed to City Prosecutor Fleming and myself in Mr. Fleming's office that he had taken the $500, some of which he said he had lost at the races while $25 he had used to cover up former thefts," testified Henry Lowenthal, manager of the Los Angeles Examiner, before a jury in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

The defendant, Frank A. Carlson, 19 years old, was formerly assistant cashier of the newspaper publishing company, and he was on trial on the charge of embezzling property of William Randolph Hearst, on January 8, 1932.

Carlson's alleged confession of the former employee's alleged confession, young Carlson fixed his gaze on the floor. His mother sat behind him, her face pale and her hands clasped in prayer. A group of Carlson's duty to take our cash each day to the bank, where entries were made to our credit in the bank book, which he carried. I did not count our receipts on the evening of February 2, or on the morning of February 3, so I cannot say whether much was deposited on the latter date."

J. D. Wachtel, receiving teller of the Commercial bank, testified that he had not made the entry of $500 in the bank book on February 3, and added that his slip showed $1427.

According to the theory of the prosecution, Carlson stole more than $2500 in the course of his employment. His alleged story was this: When he took money to the bank, he withheld an even sum, and altered the figures on his check. He said he had a "check" at the office he made out for a true deposit slip, to avert suspicion, but did not deposit it.

The young man confessed, it is said, that he had been spending money on racing and women.

The trial will be resumed this morning.

CHICKEN LIBEL?

Asserting that J. J. Lavin, Cashier of the Mining and Merchants Bank, had damaged his business standing by publicly saying that chickens were stolen by David M. Cohen or his partner, A. Berman, Cohen yesterday filed a suit for libel in Justice Sumner's court. Cohen said that since the charge was made, he cannot go anywhere without being asked what he has become of the chickens, to his great annoyance and detriment.

Late in February, twelve boxes of chickens were delivered to a number of birds disappeared, one night from Lavin's apartment street property. Lavin and Attorney E. E. Carlson, it is charged, plotted to steal the chickens from Cohen's home on March 2, and in the presence of Berman and his wife, said to Cohen: "You and your partner brought a team last night and stole my chickens, oranges and wood."

"I did charge the men with the theft," said Lavin. "I was afterward recovered the chickens from a produce dealer, Harris, on Seventh street. He identified the man who sold them to him, but the fellow got away. I have befriended the Berman, and I suspected that Berman and his partner had something to do with the disappearance of my property."

CHARGE BAD FAITH. WOULD WITHDRAW FROM DEAL.

Alleging that they were induced to become parties to a real estate purchase by the use of dummy names of purchasers, A. E. Dutcher, George N. Bookhout and Jay M. Decker yesterday filed in the Superior Court three suits against The Public Service, Power and Water Company, N. L. Cowan and C. S. Taylor to recover $125, $2500, and $2250, respectively.

The plaintiffs assert that they signed an agreement on January 8, 1932, with Heath, D. W. Cartier, H. R. Cowan, L. W. Leighton, A. S. Barker, and Eliza Perkins to buy from The Public Service, Power and Water Company for $67,500, fifty acres in the Palms tract. They say that Cowan and the corporation represented to them that all signatures were given in good faith and that each signer would put up his proportion of the money. The agreement, it is alleged, provided that the H. R. Cowan Company was to have the sale of lots in the tract for 20 per cent commission.

Later, the defendants say, they learned that L. W. Leighton's signature was given under a secret understanding that he should put up nothing and be allowed to withdraw from the deal later, and they believe that other such signatures were appended.

TO SUPPORT SON. MUSICIAN ORDERED TO PAY.

George Cann, leader of the Imperial Orchestra, was purged of contempt by Judge James yesterday, as he paid to his former wife, Mrs. C. E. Cann, a $35 monthly allowance for the support of his crippled son, George.

OREGON LAND CASE.

Little Evidence so Far Added to Show Local Defendants Involved in Matter.

The defense in the Oregon land fraud case, on trial before United States Commissioner Van Dyke, scored a point yesterday afternoon by securing the introduction of a number of important documents in evidence.

F. A. Burlingame, formerly bookkeeper for the Pacific Furniture and Lumber Company, testified in regard to various transactions between the company and city banks. He stated that the Broadway Bank and Trust Company was only one of several institutions that had business dealings with the furniture concern.

The hearing will be resumed today, and may be continued throughout next week. So far the government has brought out any material evidence to connect the defendants with the alleged frauds, but the latter have introduced testimony to show that none of them had any knowledge of attempts to secure government timber land illegally.

ALTIUMON Hotel Cases in Progress.

The rates are now reasonable, European plan $10 per day, American plan $12 per day, including breakfast. Excellent cafe and cuisine. Always stop at Hotel Green when in Pasadena.

The court ordered Cann to pay $35 monthly allowance for his son's support, as examination showed, that he is earning $35 weekly and with it supporting three daughters of his present wife, whose former husband, Frank P. Snow, divorced her for cruelty after she told him, in 1906, that she thought more of Cann than she did of him.

"I am in debt and cannot make ends meet," said Cann. "I owe a bank $100, as much more to friends, and I have to spend $10 weekly from my salary for music for my orchestra."

But the court thought the crippled son must be taken care of, and made an order to that effect.

CHANGE TO BE PUSHED.

DANCE-HALL MAN ARRESTED.

"Al" Leal, formerly proprietor of a Rhyolite (Nev.) dance hall, who passed an alleged worthless $25 check, drawn on Cook's Rhyolite Bank, on May 21, last, was arrested yesterday at Santa Rosa by Sheriff Smith on a telegram from Sheriff Hammett. Deputy Sheriff Mathewson brought the prisoner to this city.

Ret King of the Hollenbeck bar, who swore to the complaint against Leal, said yesterday: "I shall prosecute him to the limit. He was introduced to me last spring by men in good standing, and after I found that he had no funds in the Rhyolite bank, I sent him several letters which were returned, so I know he got them. I have been on the lookout for him ever since. As soon as I got him located, I made complaint."

It is said that the prisoner is a well-known mining-camp character.

ODD DELUSIONS.

MAN AND WOMAN SUFFER.

Miss Anna Sherwood, who constantly hears voices and has a $5000 right to an esoteric knowledge of the constitution of the universe, according to her story, which she is mad over his own system of wireless telegraphy, was adjudged insane yesterday. Miss Sherwood, who said she had been in an Ohio asylum, was committed to Patton, while Asakura's friends may be permitted to take him back to Tuma, Ariz., whence he came a month ago.

"I went into my kitchen last Friday," testified Mrs. Emma Hildreth of No. 328 East Ninth street, "and there I saw a woman who was an utter stranger to me sitting at my table and eating ravenously. She seemed to be suffering from starvation, by her story she said she had been over her own system of wireless telegraphy, was adjudged insane yesterday. Miss Sherwood, who said she had been in an Ohio asylum, was committed to Patton, while Asakura's friends may be permitted to take him back to Tuma, Ariz., whence he came a month ago."

"I had room 23 at a hotel, my mail box was No. 113, and I was arrested on Friday because the combination was too much for me," said Asakura. He was picked up February 8 on a downtown street, where he was walking along with a mad, handkerchiefed man who was shouting a peculiar manner in his hands. He frequently stopped to make book notes of the man, and he said he was recording over the wireless telegraph instrument in his hands.

MARRIAGE VICTIMS' WOE.

"My husband threatened to kill me so frequently that I was in a constant terror of him during our married life," said Mrs. Evaline Hoback yesterday to Judge James, who granted her a divorce from Joseph Hoback, a jewelry salesman, on the ground of cruelty. She said she was married in Arizona in 1909, when she was 16 years old, her parents coaxing her into the match.

"One day I got tired of my husband's threats to kill me and I didn't think much more of him. He made me get on my knees, while he made a good gun at my head, and he would point his finger at me and say, 'I will shoot you if you don't do as I say.' He didn't support me, and I brought my two children first to Long Beach, then to San Diego, and finally to Santa Maria. My husband never supported me or them, and I can get no trace of him or the little ones."

Mrs. Hoback leaned on a crutch, as she was crippled in a street-car accident a fortnight ago.

"I haven't got a lawyer," said Mrs. Florence Fritzsche to Judge James when Joseph Fritzsche applied for a divorce from her on the ground of desertion. He got his decree after the woman said she was perfectly willing now to live with him at any time.

"I was married in February, 1904," said Fritzsche, "and six weeks later my wife left without explanation and went to San Francisco. Then she phoned me and said she was sorry she was so far away and asked for money to return. I sent it, and we lived in the same house for a few weeks. I found out she was going to buy a lodging-house. I asked her where I was to live, and she said she didn't know. I did not go to the lodging-house to live. One while we were living in the same house she said she didn't think much of married life any more."

Fritzsche said she put money in his purse," testified Mrs. Fritzsche, "but he didn't give me enough to live on, so I preferred to earn my own living. But now I am perfectly willing to live with him again at any time, and he can come to my house and live there. I will go and live with him. But Mrs. Fritzsche left the courtroom minus a husband.

AFTER MONEY. F. E. Simons, assignee for Selma E. Vance and Healer Ladd, her counsel, in an agreement for an annulment of her marriage to Henry W. Crisp, yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against Samuel Crisp to recover $1000, alleged unpaid. The complaint states that Miss Vance and H. W. Crisp were married March 5, 1929, and that the days after the marriage Crisp had another wife living. An agreement was made by Samuel Crisp to pay to Miss Vance $500 and $500 attorney's fees, and the latter to her claims against Henry Crisp, she to get an annulment of the marriage at that city for the wedding of Western avenue.

BUY BURBRIDGE HOME.

Estate on West Adams Street Changes Hands for Twenty-five Thousand Dollars.

Gustave Werner, who is connected with manufacturing interests in Los Angeles, is purchasing the famous O. H. Burbridge place at No. 2088 West Adams street for a consideration of about $25,000.

The property consists of a lot having a frontage of 161 feet on West Adams street, and a depth, extending back almost to West Twenty-seventh street, of 531 feet. The property is highly improved with all varieties of ornamental trees and shrubs, and has an old two-story frame residence, a barn and other outbuildings on it.

When asked about the sale yesterday Mr. Burbridge admitted that negotiations for its purchase by Mr. Werner had been in progress, and that the property was in escrow, with a deposit to secure its completion, although the entire consideration had not been paid over. The Wright & Callender Company were the agents who negotiated the transaction.

SUE FOR BIG AMOUNT.

Echo of Ohio Railroad Failure Is Heard in Local Federal Court.

Suit for $216,383 was filed in the United States Circuit Court yesterday against Henry W. Putnam, a wealthy resident of San Diego, who is a stockholder in the insolvent Columbus, Sandusky and Hooking Railroad of Ohio. The plaintiff is Ellsworth C. Irvine, receiver, in behalf of F. M. Marriott and other creditors. After the railroad became hopelessly bankrupt, numerous actions were brought against it in the Ohio courts. Its unsecured debts aggregated $747,894, and it became necessary to file suits against each individual stockholder, who is personally liable to the extent of his holdings in the corporation.

Putnam is said to own 4227 shares, of the par value of $100 each. The assessment was fixed at 50 per cent. of par value of the stock. The stockholders are scattered all over the country, and numerous suits have been brought. The local action was begun by the law firm of Lawler, Allen, Van Dyke & Jettison. The defendant, served with a copy of the complaint, and it is expected he will put up a fight before admitting his liability of nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

BOARDERS LOSE BY FIRE.

Flames Start in Tailor Shop and Gut Apartment House on North Hope Street.

Fire, which started in the tailor shop of M. Goldman at No. 113 North Hope street, yesterday afternoon, gutted the apartment-house owned by F. R. Graham at No. 111-113 North Hope street. The tailor shop occupied one corner of the first floor of the building. The fire department made a quick run but the flames had worked into the air shaft.

R. M. Pierce, A. J. Smith, Mrs. Schaefer, William Rogers and other boarders lost many of their belongings. The damage is estimated at $4000, most of which is covered by insurance.

Capital Punishment.

LOS ANGELES, March 20.—[To the Editor of the Times:] The State Senate of Ohio has recently voted, by a decided majority, to abolish capital punishment. This step cannot be too highly commended. Let the House pass the bill, if it has not already done so, and I am sure the Governor will sign it; then, including Ohio, six States of the Union have renounced judicial murder. Others in time will follow, until this relic of barbarism has been completely abolished.

Show me the criminal code of any nation, and I will tell you its grade of civilization. For over 2000 years the death penalty has been in force, and the result has proved a failure. This law never did prevent crime, and it never will, but it teaches vengeance. It always has and it always will.

Statistics and history fully prove that the death penalty increases crime rather than diminishes it. In all ages, wherever the enforcement of the death penalty has been most frequent, crime has proportionately increased. Severe penalties have not prevented crime. Murder is the greatest of all crimes. Its punishment should be confinement and hard labor for life, without pardon, unless the accused should, after conviction, be found innocent. By this change in the law, the ends of justice will be better served and justice more certain to convict. Certainty of punishment, not its severity, prevents crime. Says Rabelais in his "Gargantua and Pantagruel": "The science of penology proclaims it as law that the fear of punishment does not prevent crime."

SALE TODAY

*Ordinance Designed to Prohibit Either Sale or Smoking of Cigarettes is Passed to Second Reading by Municipal Body—May Smoke on Special Reservation

LONG BEACH, March 20.—The City Council last night passed to its second reading an ordinance calculated to banish the cigarette in Long Beach. Under the sweeping provisions of the proposed ordinance, any man, woman or child selling or smoking a cigarette in Long Beach, or who brings one or more into the city, or who owns a building leased by a firm selling or giving them away, or any one who visits a place where they are dispensed, or any member of a club maintaining a buffet or stand where cigarettes are handled, or any common carrier, handling them; In fact, any one connected in any manner, remote or otherwise, with the sale or use of the wee angel-makers is guilty of a misdemeanor, the lightest punishment.

An exception is made to persons who smoke for their health. By securing a prescription from a physician, good for only twenty-four hours, a person may buy cigarettes from a pharmacist without having paid $100 a year license for the privilege and puts up a bond of $2000. A violation results in the revocation of the druggist's permit. A cigarette is defined in the ordinance as a roll of tobacco or preparation of tobacco, wrapped in paper for smoking.

Rabid advocates of pure morals are now hopeful that they will yet succeed in having the pier equipped with gates which will be closed on Sundays and every evening at sundown.

REACHES FORTIETH DAY.

Smiling and confident of herself, Miss Etta Priscilla Grove, the young Chicago school teacher who is fasting at the Cynthia Annex apartments, at noon today entered the fortieth day of food abstinence. She seems to be in the best of health and says she feels well and quite strong, but refuses to make any prediction as to how much longer she will continue. She does not seem to attach any importance to the fact that she has almost equaled Dr. Tanner's record. This morning she received letters from Chicago relatives reminding her because of the newspaper notoriety she has received, to which she retorted by return mail that the notoriety came without her seeking.

LONG BEACH NOTES.

Miss Winifred Stevens, daughter of W. L. Stevens, had a narrow escape from death yesterday evening and for several hours her life was despaired of. Since the death of her mother, nearly a year ago, the young woman has been in poor health, and medicines and tonics were taken. Yesterday evening by mistake she got hold of a bottle containing lysol and took a draught before discovering her mistake. Prompt medical attention saved her life.

Douglas Wallace, aged 18, has rigged up and perfected a wireless telegraph

On Saturday Long Beach will welcome the officers and sailor boys of the Pathfinder squadron, now at San Pedro. Admiral Sebree has promised these shore leave to nearly 1000 of the men, and they will be given free access to the bath-house, the Majestic dance, all the moving picture shows and the roller coaster. The first copy of the rate sheet for Hotel Virginia accommodations was received in the city today. Single rooms range from $20 to $40 a week; rooms for two persons from $40 to $75 weekly; by the day the rates are from $5 to $12. The head waiter, with two assistants and twelve Koreans, have arrived and the chief cook and his crew will be here March 31.

The queerest denizen of the deep ever seen here by old fishermen was brought up on a net line last night and is on exhibition on the outer wharf. For the benefit of inquirers B. Counts has labeled it a "Mexican bomboller." The fish is five and one-half feet long and looks like a cross between a skate and a shovel-nose shark. On either side of its tall appendages, in the end of which is sheathed a sharp knife of bone.

B. F. Hall of Santa Ana, aged 63 years, while crossing Linden avenue night fell just as a fast driven team of horses turned the corner. The driver saw the peril and swung his horses, missing the prostrate man but a few inches. The victim's face was bruised by the fall and his left arm was bruised and twisted.

TAKE AUTO—CAUGHT.

Hickies from Areadia Apprehended After Having Taken an Unbidden Ride.

MONROVIA, March 20.—Two Ardia jockeys, familiarly known to the profession as Scotty and Roscoe, created a sensation last evening by coolly taking possession of Richard R. Cowan's automobile and racing down Myrtle avenue toward the valley. The machine was standing at the curb in the business section and scores of pedestrians saw the boys start, but expected nothing wrong until Cowan gave the alarm. Motorcyclists set off in swift pursuit and officers of neighbeing towns were asked by telephone to be on the alert. Within a few minutes all main roads were under surveillance. It was feared that the unskilled amateurs would wreck the machine before they could be apprehended, but they stalled in a sand bed south of the city and no actual harm was done. Cowan, regarding the affair as a thoughtless escapade fortunately terminated, is loathe to prefer charges against the jockeys. Local officers and those summoned in neighboring towns are not inclined to leniency and the collapse of the law. They charge that the failure to prosecute for like offenses has handicapped them in the performance of their duty and usually invited infraction of laws, compromises without resort to the courts and without disciplinary accompaniment they directly attribute a rampant epidemic of juvenile outlaws.

STRUGGLE ON OVER DESERT.

Leaders in Automobile Race Reach Tonopah.

Rescued by Record-breaking Repair Party.

Italian Car Fights Wolves, Others Behind.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
TONOPAH (Nev.) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After being stuck in the mud, lost in the desert, broken down and rescued by a repair car that made a record trip of 153 miles in three hours and fifteen minutes, the Italian car, leader in the New York to Paris automobile race, reached Tonopah at ten minutes before 11 tonight.

The car was stalled at an early hour this morning in heavy mud a short way west of Ely. It was pulled out by horses, after delay of some time, and rushed on its way. Fifty miles further on, at Stone Cabin, fifty-six miles east of Tonopah, the differential gearing was broken in a bad piece of road. A rescue car was sent from here, and found the racer in a sad plight. It rushed back, got extra parts, returned to the stranded racer, and repairs were quickly made.

The Thomas car had a not unusual experience yesterday. It became stuck in the desert. Running from Winnemucca, it kept the telegraph poles in view, crossed the short-cut path on the desert, only to find that his cut-off had been in vain, for he could not drive the machine over the twenty-foot railway embankment. The only way to cross to the southern side was on the rails of the Nevada Northern, but he did not know this.

Turning west to look for a crossing, the Thomas driver became lost. Two hours were lost in finding the crossing place, but at noon the car arrived at Currie.

GOLDFIELD AGOG.

MINERS WAIT FOR RACER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
GOLDFIELD (Nev.) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At a late hour tonight all Goldfield is waiting up to welcome the American drivers in the Automobile race from New York to Paris. Flags are displayed everywhere, and the streets are full of miners waiting to see the leading car roll into town.

It is reported that the car is between Hawthorn and Tonopah, and will not get into Goldfield until Saturday noon. A scout car has just returned with the news that the racer has been in trouble sixty miles north of Tonopah.

THOMAS AT DAGGETT.

WAITING TO WELCOME CAR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
DAGGETT, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] E. L. Thomas, vice-president of the Thomas Motor Car Company, is in Daggett tonight, striving to get in touch with the crew of his car. After failing to get any news, though he kept the wires humming between Daggett and the Nevada mining town, Thomas drove to Otis in the desert northeast of Daggett tonight in a Kieckhafer with Leon T. Shettler of Los Angeles, and the streets are full of miners waiting to see the leading car roll into town.

The car proceeded some distance beyond Otis in the hope of finding trace of the men who are striving to reach this place on the run to Los Angeles. Mr. Thomas had arranged for the crew to remain here tonight and proceed to Los Angeles tomorrow morning by way of Colton Pass, San Bernardino, Pomona, Azusa and Pasadena.

According to schedule, the Thomas should have reached Tonopah Thursday afternoon and Goldfield the same night. This morning the crew should have pulled out on the 20-mile run to Daggett, where the crew would have rested Friday night. The triumphant entry into Los Angeles would have been made about 2 o'clock Saturday. Dispatches ordering Harold Brinker to drive night and day in order to reach Los Angeles on schedule time were wired to Goldfield by Mr. Thomas. These telegraphic instructions await the Thomas men at Goldfield. They do not yet know of the change in program which calls for a visit to Los Angeles.

Trainmen who reached Daggett tonight reported having seen the Thomas about four hours out of Daggett. They said the car was traveling rapidly. This caused the pilot crew to make another sortie into the desert in search of the wanderers without success. An old prospector who arrived in Daggett last night declared that heavy sandstorms have prevailed near Goldfield for several days. He declared that there is danger of the Thomas crew being hopelessly lost if caught in the blizzards of sand.

All Daggett turned out tonight in the hope of welcoming the men, who have made such a splendid run. For hours people waited in the streets of the little mining town for the lost car, and only when it was learned that the Thomas had just made its way into Tonopah, did the miners give up hope of welcoming the tired transcontinental autoists.

IN WOLF FIGHT.

NEWS OF OTHER CARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHEYENNE (Wyo.) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Italian car had an exciting encounter with a pack of timber wolves last night just before reaching Spring Valley. At first the wolves kept at a safe distance, but gradually became bolder, and finally when the car stopped for a moment at the foot of a steep hill, the varmints surrounded the crew. There were at least fifty in the pack. The car could not run away from them, because of the heavy, steep road, and the wolves could be frightened neither with the horn-horn or the searchlights. Finally Dr. Scarfoglio and his companions were compelled to open fire with their rifles. Three wolves were killed at the first fire. The crew fired until their ammunition was practically exhausted, killing twenty of the wolves. The others finally gave up the fight.

The Zust has been denied the use of the Union Pacific trucks through the Aspen tunnel, although the Thomas car was permitted to use them. The Zust had to follow the almost impassable mountain roads. For this piece of discrimination the railroad officials are being roundly criticized.

The car tonight is well into Utah, and speeding toward Ogden.

The French car De Dion arrived here at 4:30 this afternoon, having made more than 150 miles since its last stop. It will remain here during the night. The German car Protus is at Ogden tonight, with fairly good roads ahead.

M. V. CAMPBELL, late lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps, will tell in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday, about the origin of many military and naval customs.

Los Angeles youths, who start from here early this morning on 5000-mile roundabout walking trip to New York, expecting to reach their destination in about a year.

Just for exercise, Francis A. and Theo. H. M. Crampton will start from Bimini Baths this morning to walk to New York. They expect to be about fourteen months on the road. There is no wager about it, and they are not trying for a record. They are just walking.

They are young New Yorkers, one 13 and the other 21. Last June they came to Los Angeles, intending to go into college here. Eyes falling one of them, they have decided to take this notable walk.

The start will be made at 7 o'clock. They will go from here to Santa Barbara, which city they hope to reach in about five days. Their route is from San Francisco, Ocotillo, Pueblo, then southward, through Texas and along the Gulf to New Orleans; thence to Tampa, and then skirting the Atlantic Coast to the "big town."

From here to San Francisco, they intend to follow the Camino Real. Except going through the desert where towns are so far apart, the boys intend to carry very little baggage, depending on hospitable farm houses and country hotels.

Their personal necessities will be shipped ahead from station to station. Yesterday they called upon the Mayor and Chief of Police of this city, and got credentials from both. These with

MISSION TO CLOSE.
Last Evening Sermon of the Man's Work to an Immense Crowd Last Night.
The last evening instruction of the men's mission was given last night by Rev. Father O'Malley at St. Vibiana's Cathedral to the largest crowd of the week. There was not one vacant seat; fully 100 persons were accommodated inside the sanctuary, and twice as many others stood in the back of the church. There will be no sermon tonight, the time being taken up in hearing confessions, but tomorrow evening there will be the last service, a general summing-up sermon, and the mission will close.

YALE MEN AT BANQUET.
much for inviting me, and should be delighted to be with you if I were able. [Signed] "WILLIAM H. TAFT."
TELEGRAM FROM TAFT.
Later in the evening a telegram was received from the Secretary of War at Washington as follows:
"Please present to the Yale men of Los Angeles and Southern California my cordial greeting and say to them that the older I grow and the more experience in life I have the more valuable I regard the bond that, in binding us to Mother Yale, binds us all closely to each other."
Upon motion, which was carried unanimously and with enthusiasm, the chairman was instructed to dispatch a reply, assuring Mr. Taft that all Yale men of Southern California would support him in securing the nomination for the Presidency and that all would work for his election when that had been secured.
John Hays Hammond, the noted mining engineer, who was perhaps as much responsible for Mr. Taft's active candidacy as any other one man, wired as follows:
"I deeply regret that I am not yet strong enough to go to Los Angeles to celebrate with you this evening. It would have been an enviable privilege to have added my tribute to the character of our fellow college man, William H. Taft, and to have proposed this toast: To those who know him not, no words can paint, while those who know him, all praise is faint. Here's a bumper to the next President."
OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.
Before the speakers of the evening were introduced the annual election of officers was held and resulted in the unanimous recall of Dr. Francis B. Kellogg to the chair for the ensuing year. Dr. Adams was also re-elected to serve another term as vice-president.
The Rev. Arthur S. Phelps was the first speaker of the evening and took as his subject "The New Statesmanship." He paid a glowing tribute to the new citizenship which had been awakened by President Roosevelt's indomitable fight for right and said that Taft would make as good a President for the reason that he had made a better selection of an alma mater and could therefore be depended upon to do right in lesser things. He believed that he would rather be Taft than
